Great expectations

The Hotel Vintage Plaza's "Babymoon" aims to indulge expecting parents before they are deluged with diapers and feeding schedules.

"Pickles, Peanut Butter & Ice Cream" is designed for moms and dads to-be — or to be again. The idea is to share with your partner, get off tired and swollen feet and surrender to pregnancy-induced cravings.

The $499 package features one night in a hospitality suite in one of the boutique hotel's 107 rooms. A therapist gives an in-room massage, and if cravings erupt, pickles, peanut butter and a pint of Haagen-Dazs ice cream (flavors change, though special requests are honored) is delivered by room service, even in the middle of the night. To take home, moms receive a pregnancy pillow and a gift certificate for a Bare Foot Studio keepsake brick or rock to be engraved with the baby's name and birth date.
